1 CHS PENTECOST VIGIL PROCESSION (GUIDELINE)

- The Order for the Procession is as follows – Cross Bearer, Acolyte, Incense & Thurible, Bells, Flower Girls, Vehicle carrying the Blessed Sacrament, Clergy, Seminarians & EMHCs, Prayer Leaders followed by Congregation.
- Do follow the instructions of the Hospitality Ministers and Road Marshalls throughout the procession.
- Candles will be provided and these can be collected at church entrances.
- During the procession, please maintain a prayerful atmosphere and refrain from having your own private conversation. Follow the prayers and recitation of the rosary and the singing of the hymns.
- We will be praying the Rosary to the Holy Spirit during our procession. Please download the prayer from our CHS website to use for our procession and to share them with those who need them. The song sheet provided will not have this prayer due to space constraints.
- Do look out for each other and help the elderly and physically challenged as we journey together in this procession.
- For those of you who are not taking part in the procession, you may remain in church.
- Buns will be provided after the mass and procession at the CHS Café. Please collect them at the café.
- We encourage you to wear our Golden Jubilee T-shirt for the procession as a sign of our unity and identity.

2 HYMNS & PRAYERS FOR THE PENTECOST PROCESSION

To preserve our environment and in line with Pope Francis's "Laudato Si", we would minimize the use of paper and wastage. Scan on this QR Code, for the link to the Hymns and Songs for the procession.
