MESSAGE FROM BRO. SCANY POLYCARP
 "CHS is not just a Cathedral to me- it has allowed me to experience Pastoral Life in many different ways. Being involved with spiritual and liturgical formation, community outreach and service, parish administration, leadership, discipleship and prayer has motivated me to continue on in my vocation despite the many challenges I encountered. The enthusiasm of the Parishioners has become the spark, igniting my Faith. I am grateful to God for I had been given opportunity to Immersing myself and living within the community at CHS; forming lifelong friendships with parishioners; serving alongside my sisters and brothers in Christ- have left precious memories that will not only be cherished dearly, but has and will continue to nourish me in my Vocation Journey". Thank You.
